

J. Boyd Lindsey

Carbon Co.—J. Boyd Lindsey, age 72, passed away Feb. 3, 1988 in Provo.

He was born Feb. 11, 1915 in Gilmer, Texas to James Robert and Caroline McKnight Lindsey. Moved to Sunnyside in 1923 where a boy spent the rest of his life. He attended Edna Pressett in the Salt Lake Temple of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Played baseball, basketball and tennis. Well known as a lefthanded pitcher and first baseman throughout the state. He played basketball with four brothers on a brothers' team. Worked for Utah Fuel and Kaiser Steel coal mines for 45 years. Member of UMW. Served as a counselor in the City of Sunnyside for many years. He was a member of the LDS Church and had worked with the youth and as a financial clerk.

Survivors include: wife, Edna, Sunnyside; Kent, Roy, Utah; Brent, Salt Lake City; seven grandchildren, Tracy, Tom, Trish, Troy, Tyler, Lindsey, Terri; Edna, all of Roy; Kristin Lindsey; Michael, Arlene, three brothers; two sisters, Ruth, Granger, Armon, Oren, Ollie, Orla, Elsie, Orem; Ann, East Canyon, Utah; Oren, Feb. 6, at 2 p.m. in the East Carbon Ward Chapel. Viewing Friday evening from 7-9 p.m. at the Faussett Mortuary in Price, and one hour prior to the service of the Word Chapel. Interment will be in the Price City Cemetery.